DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. The current status of the parent nonprovisional application(s) should be included in the first paragraph of the specification also.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. The 2-hydroxyacids, the 2-hydroxyalkoxyacetic acids, the amino acids, the amino alcohols, the diacids, the triols and the tetraols have no antecedent basis in claim

11. Claim 12 should depend from claim 7.

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claims 2-14 and 16-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Polymers have no molecular weights. They only have average molecular weights. Furthermore, said average molecular weight can be weight average, number average, viscosity average, peak average or Z average molecular weight. The numerical values of said average molecular weights is quite different, especially at higher average molecular weights. One of average skill in the art would not know which average molecular weight is claimed by applicants.

7. Claims 2-14 and 16-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for a loss of average molecular mass of porous materials, does not reasonably provide enablement for a loss of average molecular mass of non porous materials where the polymers are manipulated by different means. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make or use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. The specification on page 54 lines 28-30 and page 55, lines 1-2 shows only a loss of average molecular mass of porous samples. The compositions claimed in claims 2, 3, 6-14, 16-24 are not porous at all and in the compositions claimed in claims 4,5 and 30-33, the form of the composition is only one of the alternative modifications.

Double Patenting

8. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

9. Claims 2-14 and 16-33 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 27-39 of U.S. Patent No. 6,524,515. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because although the modifications are not claimed, it is clear that the limitation of claim 29 has been achieved by the same way as claimed by applicants. Although applicants' amendments overcame the double patenting rejection, the examiner maintains it, anticipating cancellation of the amendment in order to remove the enablement rejections. Double patenting rejections can be made if there is at least one common inventor, even in the case of different ownership. This is a direct examination, not a reexamination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

10. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

11. Claims 2-14 and 16-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b or e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Gogolewski et al. 5,236,431, Williams 6,514,515 or Williams et al. 6,623,749.

12. Anticipating the removal of applicants' amendments in order to overcome the enablement rejections, all rejections are maintained by the examiner.

13. Applicants failed to show the fate of cancelled claim 34 in their response.

Conclusion

14. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
